

I Pledge Allegiance

#516, Week of 7-1-2018

by Dr. Dennis Prutow

July 4 is a time to wave the flag. We gladly say, "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." We pledge. We give our solemn promise. We pledge allegiance. We promise loyalty, faithfulness, and devotion.

We pledge allegiance to the flag, the symbol of our country, the United States. The states are united in one nation. Many peoples from various ethnic and national backgrounds unite under this one banner to form one nation.

This is a nation under God. Our motto is simple. "In God we trust." When we do acknowledge God and understand the many and diverse peoples of this land all bear God's image, the nation truly becomes indivisible. We work tirelessly for the liberty of all and for justice to prevail for all.

There is an implicit biblical perspective in the Pledge of Allegiance. Daniel exclaimed of God, "It is He who changes the times and the epochs; He removes kings and establishes kings" (Daniel 2:21). Paul declares of the Almighty, "He made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having determined their appointed times and the boundaries of their habitation" (Acts 17:26). We need to remember these things.

God has a Way

A piece of furniture from the house of worship, the ark of the covenant, had to be moved. A brand new cart was hewn for the task. Uzza was one of the drivers. The cart faltered. Uzza put out his hand to steady the cargo. "The anger of the Lord burned against Uzza, so He struck him down because he put out his hand to the ark; and he died there before God" (1 Chronicles 13:10).

After some reflection, King David declared his opinion to the priests. "Because you did not carry it at the first, the Lord our God made an outburst on us, for we did not seek Him according to the ordinance" (1 Chronicles 15:13).

Numbers 4:15 declares no one must touch the ark of the covenant on pain of death. God also designated certain priests to carry this sacred chest with poles inserted through rings on each side of the ark. God gave this rule or ordinance. David failed to approach God, to seek Him, according to the ordinance.

Jesus says, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father but through Me" (John 14:6). We have little problem following the prescriptions a doctor gives us to heal our bodies. We should have no difficulty following God's prescription for the healing of our souls.

Too Testy?

#517, Week of 7-15-2018

The people of Israel had no drinking water. They grumbled. They harangued. They challenged Moses. "Why, now, have you brought us up from Egypt, to kill us and our children and our livestock with thirst?" (Exodus 17:3). God told Moses, "Take in your hand your staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock at Horeb; and you shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink" (Exodus 17:5-6).

The place was named Massah meaning "test." Forty years later, Moses warned the people, "You shall not put the Lord your God to the test, as you tested Him at Massah" (Deuteronomy 6:16).

Satan tried to snare Jesus. "The devil took Him into the holy city and had Him stand on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, 'If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down; for it is written, "He will command His angels concerning You"; and "On their hands they will bear You up, so that You will not strike Your foot against a stone"' (Matthew 4:5-6).

Jesus hearkened back to Israel's failure. "You shall not put the Lord your God to the test" (Matthew 4:7). Like ancient Israel, we test God. Jesus doesn't. His loving obedience makes up for our testy behavior.

A Debt of Gratitude

#518, Week of 7-22-2018

A religious lawyer asked Jesus to name the first and greatest commandment. Jesus did not hesitate. He quoted the Old Testament book of Deuteronomy. "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might" (Deuteronomy 6:5, Matthew 22:37).

Here is a word under this heading of love. "You shall fear only the Lord your God; and you shall worship Him and swear by His name" (Deuteronomy 6:13). These words are similar to the First Commandment, "You shall have no other gods before Me." (Exodus 20:3, Deuteronomy 5:7). We express love for God with worship, reverence, and respect.

Satan tried to get Jesus to repudiate His love for the Father. “The devil took Him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory; and he said to Him, ‘All these things I will give You, if You fall down and worship me’” (Matthew 4:8-9). Jesus would have none of this devilry. “Go, Satan! For it is written, ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and serve Him only’” (Matthew 4:10).

Jesus worshipped the Father. His obedience was not a burden but a way to show His love. We fail in love. We are imperfect. The loving obedience of Jesus Christ pays the debt of gratitude we owe.

Love Requires Renewal

#519, Week of 7-29-2018

by Dr. Dennis Prutow

After forty years of wondering and grumbling the people just didn’t get it. After all the miracles in Egypt, the manna, and the quail from heaven, the people did not understand the grace of God. Moses gave the reason. “To this day the Lord has not given you a heart to know, nor eyes to see, nor ears to hear” (Deuteronomy 29:4).

Moses also gave this promise. “The Lord your God will circumcise your heart and the heart of your descendants, to love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul, so that you may live” (Deuteronomy 30:6). This promise is in keeping with the Great Commandment. “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might” (Deuteronomy 6:5).

The New Testament picture is the same. Jesus says, “If you love Me, you will keep My commandments” (John 14:15). The apostle John declares, “This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments” (1 John 5:3). The apostle Paul says of fellow Christians, “The love of God has been poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us” (Romans 5:5). Hearts inclined toward the love of God require spiritual awakening and rebirth. This is why Jesus declares, “You must be born again” (John 3:7).
